

Getting Started with Google AI

December 10, 2025

Google AI: Free Access for Students

- ▶ Google offers free/trial access to several AI products
- ▶ Options:
 - ▶ Google AI Studio: Free tier with generous limits
 - ▶ Google Cloud: 1-year free trial ($300 credit) for students
 - ▶ Gemini Advanced: 1-month free trial
- ▶ Useful for research, coding, and learning

How to Register

1. Go to <https://aistudio.google.com>
2. Sign in with your Google account (use university email for student benefits)
3. For Google Cloud credits:
 - ▶ Visit <https://cloud.google.com/free>
 - ▶ Apply for student credits via <https://edu.google.com>
4. For Gemini Advanced trial:
 - ▶ Visit <https://gemini.google.com>
 - ▶ Click "Try Gemini Advanced" (1-month free)

Product 1: Gemini

- ▶ Google's flagship AI assistant (like ChatGPT)
- ▶ Access via <https://gemini.google.com>
- ▶ Features:
 - ▶ Text generation and conversation
 - ▶ Code generation and debugging
 - ▶ Image understanding
 - ▶ Integration with Google Workspace
- ▶ Gemini Advanced: More powerful, 1-month free trial

Product 2: Google AI Studio

- ▶ Developer platform for Gemini API
- ▶ Access via <https://aistudio.google.com>
- ▶ Features:
 - ▶ Free API access with rate limits
 - ▶ Prompt engineering playground
 - ▶ Generate API keys for your applications
 - ▶ Supports text, code, and multimodal inputs
- ▶ Great for building AI-powered applications

Product 3: NotebookLM

- ▶ AI-powered research assistant
- ▶ Access via <https://notebooklm.google.com>
- ▶ Features:
 - ▶ Upload documents (PDFs, papers, notes)
 - ▶ AI summarizes and answers questions about your sources
 - ▶ Generate study guides and outlines
 - ▶ Audio overview feature (podcast-style summaries)
- ▶ Perfect for literature review and studying

Product 4: Google Colab + AI

- ▶ Jupyter notebooks in the cloud
- ▶ Access via <https://colab.research.google.com>
- ▶ AI Features:
 - ▶ Code completion with Gemini
 - ▶ Natural language to code
 - ▶ Error explanation and debugging
 - ▶ Free GPU/TPU access (with limits)
- ▶ Already integrated into our course workflow